

TRANSCRIPTS

1-Minute MORE PSA

Narrator “Hey California business owners, are you ready for change in 2016?”

Jeremy Patin, Nugget Market “We turn ours into liquid fertilizer.”

Charlie Bane, Hyatt Sacramento “We use ours to resoil and save money on waste disposal”

Kelsey Austin, UC Davis Student “We turn ours into energy”

Andrea Lepore, Hot Italian “We bring ours back to the soil”

Actor “We throw ours in the trash”

RECORD SCREETCH

Actor: “What?”

Narrator “Starting in 2016, a groundbreaking new law requires California commercial business to recycling organic material, like yard waste, food waste and food soiled paper. Contact your local recycling coordinator or log on to calrecycle.ca.gov/recycle/commercial/organics to see what’s required of your business and how it could boost your bottom line.”