

Paint Product Stewardship

Written Comments Received on PaintCare's Financial Evaluation Submittal to Address the Requirements of CalRecycle's Conditional Approval of PaintCare's Year 7 Annual Report

This page contains stakeholder comments on PaintCare's Evaluation of PaintCare Program Expenses and Revenue (Financial Evaluation) to address the requirements of CalRecycle's January 2020 Request for Approval.

CalRecycle requested that public comments on PaintCare's Financial Evaluation be sent to paint@calrecycle.ca.gov through April 3, 2020.

Comments received by CalRecycle on PaintCare's Financial Evaluation

Commenter	Representing	Comment
Mike Tinney	Tinney Associates	Email: March 24, 2020

From: Mike Tinney
To: Paint Product Stewardship
Subject: finaancial evaluation
Date: Tuesday, March 24, 2020 9:04:40 AM

Paint Care continues to over accumulate California consumers fee money, hopefully in a California bank? Underspend in the product and market development needed to insure a growing availability of markets for recycled paint used in secondary products, and under invest in California infra structure for secondary product material production and usage.

Time for CalRecycle to emphasis market development priorities for discarded paint.

Regards,
Mike Tinney