

TOGETHER WITH TRIBAL NATIONS, CALIFORNIA IS BUILDING A WASTE-FREE FUTURE.

WITH LESS TRASH AND CLIMATE POLLUTION.

AND MORE REPAIR, REUSE, AND REPURPOSING.

00:03:02:00 - 00:03:19:16 Beniakim “Mother Earth has given over the years and given, it's time to start giving back.”

CALIFORNIA HONORS NATIVE AMERICAN TRIBES' RICH HISTORY AND THOUGHTFUL STEWARDSHIP OF OUR PLANET'S RESOURCES.

00:02:01:18 - 00:02:33:17 Jaime “The value system was within the land and it's not, any [cut extra words] item or thing.”

00:02:39:11 - 00:03:01:22 Beniakim “You take care of it. You don't pollute it.”

CALIFORNIA VALUES TRIBAL PERSPECTIVES TO HELP SHAPE NEW WAYS TO TAKE ON TRASH AND CLIMATE POLLUTION.

LIKE CUTTING SINGLE-USE PLASTIC AND PACKAGING WASTE.

00:01:14:10 - 00:01:46:06

Fred “we're using natural fiber to replace plastics, single use packaging.”

EXPANDING EDIBLE FOOD RECOVERY AND COMMUNITY COMPOSTING FOR FOOD SOVEREIGNTY.

00:00:39:10 - 00:01:14:09 Fred “Tribal communities have a natural food system that's 20,000 years old. That sustained us for that long. And it didn't have any plastics at all.

AND CONNECTING TRIBAL BUSINESSES WITH STATE SUPPORT TO KEEP MATERIALS IN USE.

00:01:49:05 - 00:02:11:18 Beniakim “We brought in $700,000 worth of CRV to our community so that it doesn't go into landfills.

TRIBAL NATIONS ARE KEY PARTNERS IN CALIFORNIA'S MOVE FROM A DISPOSABLE, THROW-AWAY SYSTEM TO A CIRCULAR, REUSE ECONOMY.

00:01:14:10 - 00:01:46:06 Fred “Tribes are using their natural stewardship, their traditional knowledge to create economies.”

00:02:12:00 - 00:02:39:09 Beniakim “not only helps our community, but helps our Earth. That's what we're here to do.”
